

Talo Reclining Wooden Relax Chair

“Being able to easily recline myself was invaluable to my recovery”

Key Features

The Talo is easy to adjust, with a simple light backward push the chair effortlessly adjusts to a relax seating position. Opening the human form to a 135-degree angle increases blood circulation, and reduces fatigue on the upper and lower back.

- Easy to clean antimicrobial vinyl to aid infection control
- Removable seat cushion for ease of cleaning
- Available with or without castors
- Available with legrest to provide increased comfort when reclined
- The ergonomically designed armrests assist with getting out of the chair, offering extra support
-  21 stone/135kg
